INDIGENOUS AFFAIRS	 Develop a comprehensive plan to implement TRC Calls to Action 71 through 76. Fund the investigation at all former residential schools in Canada where unmarked graves may exist, including the sites where children have already been discovered. Develop a detailed and thorough set of resources to educate Canadians of all ages on the tragic history of residential schools in Canada. Build a national monument in Ottawa that honours residential school survivors and all the children who were lost. Pursue self-determination End long term drinking water advisories $1 billion over 5 years to boost Indigenous mental health and drug treatment programs Stability to Urban Indigenous Assistance Broadband in Rural Indigenous Communities 	 Increase access to social housing for Indigenous peoples living on and off reserve Ensure secure, safe water supplies, especially for Indigenous communities who have historically experienced near-permanent boil water advisories. Ramp up renewable energy development in First Nations communities and on Indigenous lands, through partnerships with Indigenous people, and UNDRIP principles of self-determination Implement the calls for justice from the National Inquiry in MMIWG Implement immediately all the calls to action from the Truth and Reconciliation Commission into residential schools. Provide sustainable funding for new and existing Indigenous healing centres to address the harms caused by residential schools Stop government's fight against Canadian Human Rights Tribunal rulings on Indigenous children in care. 	 Further invest $2 billion over four years in housing for First Nations, Inuit, and Métis Nation partners, Co-develop a new Indigenous Urban, Rural, and Northern Housing Strategy with Indigenous partners and organizations, with an initial investment of $300 million Co-develop Canada's first-ever National Indigenous Housing Centre, through which Indigenous peoples will fully oversee the federal Indigenous housing program Commit an additional $1.4 billion for a co-developed, distinctions-based mental health and wellness strategy with First Nations, Inuit, and Métis Nation, expanding on our recent commitment of $597.6 million for an overall investment of $2 billion over five years. 	 Fully implement UNDRIP and 94 TRC Calls to Action Co-develop a National Action Plan for Reconciliation Replace consultation with standard free, prior and information consent Recognize and respect Treaties & support Nations who are building/re-building their governance structures Co-develop Arctic Policy Framework Funds for communities to commemorate National Day for Truth and Reconciliation Respect, support and resource Indigenous jurisdiction over child welfare systems Work with First Nations Child & Family Caring Society to implement the Spirit Bear Plan Put an immediate end to government litigation against Indigenous Children Fully implement Jordan's Principle Work with Indigenous communities to implement co-developed, fully funded Indigenous National Housing Strategy within first 100 days in office Implement Shannen's Dream motion to ensure every child has a safe place to learn on or off reserve Work with provinces to establish Indigenous History education programs for all and ensure that the development and implementation are led by Indigenous Peoples
